

Ms. Branscomb Wilhite is the owner and operator of Branscomb Wilhite, a general practice law firm, and she is a trained mediator. Prior to her current position, she was the Director of the Homeowner Advocacy Clinic/Project and Professor of Practice at the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law, where she trained and supervised second and third year law students.

Monique Branscomb Wilhite is also the Executive State Director of the Mrs, Miss, Miss Teen, Pre-Teen and Princess Arizona

International Pageants, USA, and served as Mrs. Arizona International in 2014 where she promoted Heart Health and the Halle Heart Children's Museum

Ms. Branscomb Wilhite previously served on the Board of Directors for the American Red Cross, Trellis (previously Neighbor Housing Services of Phoenix) and New Destiny Christian Church. She was a state wide officer with the State of Arizona's Young Lawyer's Division and a national officer with the American Bar Association's Young Lawyer's Division. She also hosted a nationally televised show for children entitled "The Home Empowerment Show."

Earlier in her career, she was a legal intern for Senator, John McCain, served as a Maricopa County Attorney, a Maricopa County Legal defender, and a federal Criminal Justice Act Panel member. She has tried over 300 cases in city, state and federal court and has argued, on several occasions, before the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals.